

Annotated Bibliography Peer Review Questions

For each Entry:

- Check the formatting (either APA or MLA) of each citation and the length of each entry to make sure that they are correct. Mark any mistakes.
- Underline the thesis/ main argument of the text being annotated.
- Does the entry clearly state the writer's position about the article? Does that position address either the validity or credibility of the text?
- Does the writer contextualize the text within the larger conversation of the field?
- Does the writer address this text's usefulness to her/his argument/topic?