

Peer Reviewing Worksheet

Essay Title:

Purpose: Inform / Interpre / Argue

How Eighth Graders Spend time on Various Activities

Thesis:

Suitable -- yes / no / sort of why? takes a stand, needs to be supported with an introduction and further details
Significant -- yes / no / sort of why? discussed the graph in question
Specific -- yes / no / sort of why? detailed activities

Where is the thesis located? Is this spot appropriate given the whole essay?

no, introduction needed

Strategy:

Support point 1: Physical education class is an outside activity in school Details:

Support point 2: personal experience
Details: did not watch that much TV, other activities

Support point 3: Discuss homework
Details: importance of, should have more hours than TV watching

Is there sufficient support? Does the support make sense given the purpose and nature of the assignment?

yes, the graph seems biased

Suggestions

add introduction and conclusion
detail argument

Comments

graph analysis works well, expand on it
