

Manila Envelope Content Requirements for the Research Paper Assignment for Lisa Hager's ENG 1001 Class

All research papers are due at the beginning of class on Tuesday, August 7th

Each group's manila envelope should have the group members on the front and include the following:

- Final draft of your research paper
(stapled)
- All completed surveys paper
(paper clipped together)
- All charts created in the collating process (i.e. the handwritten ones you made in class)
(paper clipped together)
- All peer review sheets for the research paper
(paper clipped together)
- One copy of your survey